

Stanford Stroke Support Group

Neuroscience Supportive Care Program

Please join us for a friendly and supportive environment for stroke patients, their family and caregivers. This support group, in collaboration with the Pacific Stroke Association, will have guest speakers periodically throughout the year, focusing on a holistic approach to provide wellness to the stroke community.

Registration required for lectures. Walk-ins welcome for support group meetings.

To register or for more information call 650.721.8500.
